Location

East Gate Lodge is situated within Haringey, a diverse and vibrant North London Borough. It has a strong appeal to many young professionals and families, benefiting from good transport links and ample green spaces.

The premises forms part of a new mixed-use development, just off St. Ann's Road, adjacent to St Ann's Hospital, on a main route linking Tottenham with the Green Lanes area. There are several bus routes connecting to the location and Seven Sisters underground station and Harringay Green Lanes overground station are nearby.

Masterplan

The property forms part of a major regeneration being marketed as North Gate Park, comprising c. 1,000 new homes, with the first residents scheduled to take occupation in late 2025. The scheme includes 168 homes with 3+ beds, and 827 homes with 2+ beds.

At the heart of the masterplan is a new 3-acre park, adjacent to Mayfield House (proposed nursery), with mature trees and a playground. Other commercial uses expected to be delivered include a convenience store, workspace buildings, health & fitness and other complimentary uses.

Property

The building includes internal accommodation over ground floor only with the following approximate gross internal floor areas:

Floor	Area (sq ft)	Area (sq m)
Ground	1,157	107.52
