JACOB REAL ESTATE SERVICES,
INCORPORATED - 1986

The Bay Village Shopping Center is a small neighborhood center located at the southwest corner of the intersection of 62nd Avenue South and 22nd Street South in the Pinellas Point neighborhood area of south St. Petersburg, Florida. The center was originally built in 1976 and included a Winn Dixie Food Store and an Eckerd Drug Store, which were relocated and the building torn down in 2006. Bay Village now includes Infinite Potential Learning Center, Dollar General and the remaining strip center pictured above which has six units. Cricket Wireless and Subway recently vacated and tenants include a convenience store and an upscale laundromat renovated in 2017. The local neighborhood is characterized by several large garden style apartment complexes built in the early 1970's and 1980's and surrounding traditional single family housing which was built in the early 1950's and 1960's. Abutting Bay Village is a Public Library built in 2002, Bay Pointe Middle School and Bay Pointe Elementary School built in 2002. Maximo Park, O'neills Marina and the Interstate 275 interchange is one mile due west of Bay Village via Pinellas Pint Drive which becomes Roy Hanna Drive east of 28th Street and then 62nd Avenue South east of 25th Street.

Access: Left In/Left Out access into the site is via two curb cuts on 62nd Avenue and three curb cuts on 22nd Street South, one of which is for the rear service area only.

Zoning: CCS-1, Corridor Commercial Suburban - 1 zoning district, City of St. Petersburg; this zoning district permits a variety of service, retail, office, restaurant, bank, medical and schools uses. The CCS-1 zoning district is consistent with the PR-MU designation under the comprehensive land use plan.

Future Land Use: PR-MU - Planned Redevelopment – Mixed Use (MU) - Allowing mixed use retail, office, service and medium density residential uses not to exceed a floor area ratio of 1.25 and a net residential density of 24 dwelling units per acre.

Site Data: 152' wide x 273'deep; 41,496sq.ft.± or 0.95 acres±;

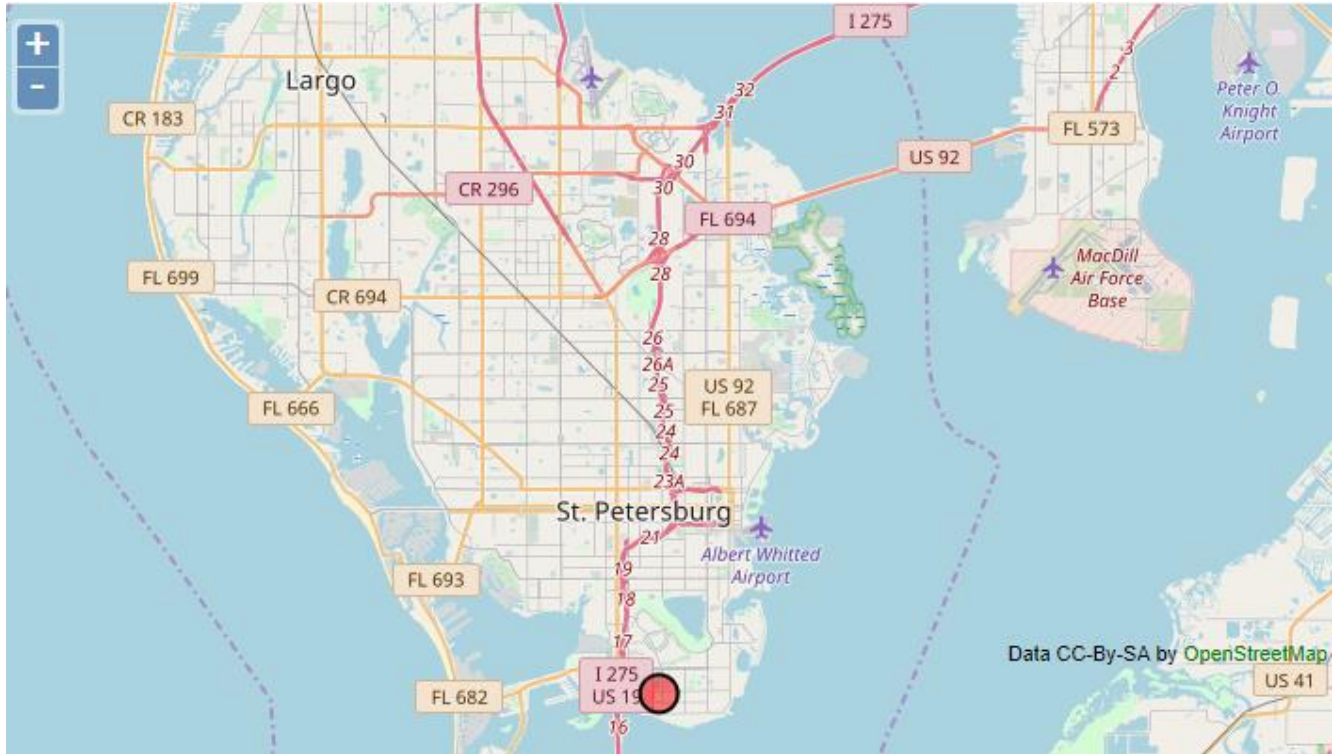

Building Data: 9,150 sq.ft. gross; 7,500 sq.ft. heated and cooled;
