DESCRIPTION

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

With a highly visible and accessible location on Fremont Street, this former tavern and nightclub offers a wide range of repositioning opportunities. Potential concepts include an ethnic restaurant and bar, nightlife venue, event or performance space, cultural or arts venue, family entertainment concept, or retail redevelopment. The property's prior use as a tavern remains a viable and compelling option for the right operator, particularly given the area's established nightlife activity.

The surrounding district continues to see new development and benefits from strong visitor traffic. There is demonstrated demand for ethnic dining experiences, especially Latin-inspired cuisine. Mexican restaurants in the broader market rank among the top-performing establishments in the state, underscoring the depth of demand for bold flavors, festive atmospheres, and experiential dining. A well-executed Latin concept—whether Mexican, Cuban, Peruvian, Brazilian, or a broader pan-Latin approach—combined with an expanded beverage program and entertainment component could perform exceptionally well in this high-traffic corridor. A larger footprint that integrates food, craft cocktails, music, and cultural programming may represent a particularly strong formula.
