Property Overview

The sale of this property includes a Three Way Liquor License valid throughout Starke County, Indiana. This historic brick building, originally constructed in 1915, offers a rare opportunity with its well-established restaurant and bar on the main floor, with a large sitting area, hardwood floors and a prime rib cooker included. All bar and restaurant equipment is in excellent condition. The property has been extensively updated with a new roof, LED lighting, a newer water heater, fresh paint, and both 100-amp and 200-amp electrical service in different areas of the building. The restaurant enjoys a loyal client base and a strong carry-out business. Upstairs, a spacious eight-bedroom, 2,521 SF rental apartment is immediately ready for occupancy, complete with central air. The property is supported by municipal water and sewer. This is a unique turnkey opportunity blending historic charm with modern convenience.
