PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Omar Aizaz is a dedicated commercial real estate professional specializing in investment sales and tenant representation across the Washington D.C. metropolitan region. Since entering the industry in 2015, Omar has developed a strong track record in both retail and medical office investment sales, as well as industrial (flex), office, and medical office tenant representation.

Omar began his real estate career with an independent family agency focusing on Residential luxury agent specializing in Howard and Baltimore County. He gravitated towards retail leasing and property management within the Baltimore, D.C marketplace. Omar has had great success in actively managing & leasing over 500,000 Sq. Ft of Mixed Office and Retail space in the Baltimore and Fairfax area. He also has experience in hospitality management and Landlord & tenant relations. He is skilled in collaborating with different members to achieve business and financial objectives. Omar takes pride in helping Commercial investors reach their active goals.

Originally from Baltimore, he currently resides in North Potomac with his wife and 2 young children. Omar brings an insider's perspective to the rapid growth and transformation of the metropolitan area. Today, he is proud to be a part of Coldwell Banker Commercial with the Terra Advisory Group, where he partners with his associate to deliver market expertise and strategic insight. The team provides comprehensive services including buyer and seller representation, landlord and tenant advisory, and development consulting across Washington D.C., Maryland, and Northern Virginia.

Omar's background as a former VP and Senior Small business Manager and an MBA from Frostburg State in Management has instilled in him a strong sense of discipline, integrity, and client-first mindset. He is especially passionate about supporting underserved communities and helping clients navigate the complexities of commercial real estate with confidence and clarity.
