Description

A purpose built ground floor office or showroom that sits on a corner site with great natural light and window frontage. The accommodation has two entrances, one on Britton Street and the other on Briset Street and is self-contained.

This versatile and refurbished space has a main area which fronts Britton Street with a boardroom and large meeting room/private office. Along Briset Street is a further meeting room and open plan area. There is also to the rear of the floor a separate kitchen and break out area along with WC's.

There is a mixture of strip, circular and rectangular suspended designer lighting.

The floor finish is new and the kitchenette is fully fitted with ample storage. The accommodation has its own WC facilities as well as individual air conditioning units.

The accommodation has an alarm and a key fob entry system.

Finally, although on a lovely tree lined street, you are right in the heart of one of London's liveliest districts with a mix of restaurants, bars, hotels, gyms and cultural amenities on your doorstep.

Commute

Farringdon station is just a short 3 minute walk away and offers excellent travel connections in all directions across the central London via the London Underground network, including the Elizabeth line. From north to south Thameslink provides connections beyond London to Luton and Gatwick airports.

Barbican and Chancery Lane underground stations are also close by.

Connectivity

We understand that fibre optic via British Telecom is already installed within the demise but prospective tenants need to make their own enquiries following an inspection.
