HUCKLETREE WEST

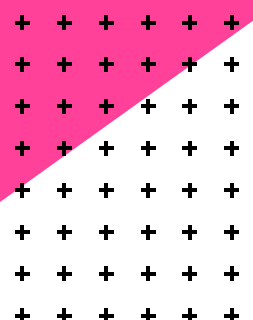

WELCOME TO HUCKLETREE WEST

HUCKLETREE WEST IS A UNIQUE WORKSPACE ACCELERATOR BRINGING TOGETHER THE MOST CREATIVE PEOPLE IN WEST LONDON UNDER ONE ROOF, TO LEARN, BUILD AND CREATE.

Home to the world famous BBC Television Centre and a thriving hub for the media and fashion industries, White City is developing into the new creative heart of the capital. Designed as a groundbreaking business and cultural district, White City brings together academic, creative and entrepreneurial talent across Imperial College London's pioneering 25-acre campus and landmark new spaces for Yoox Net A Porter and the Royal College of Art.

White City offers a vibrant live-work-play culture starting with the arrival of a new branch of members' club Soho House (complete with rooftop pool), Cecconi's restaurant, the Bluebird Cafe, thousands of quality new homes and 30 acres of public space including a new park and open spaces.

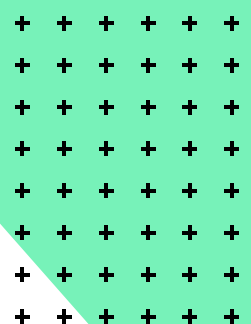

This revolutionary regeneration is creating an unrivalled landscape to foster creative ideas. Huckletree is proud to be part of the shared vision for White City's future, offering a hub for thought-leaders and exciting businesses within the digital lifestyle and media industries.

HUCKLETREE LIFE

“Life at Huckletree West is amazing. We feel truly valued here and the team do everything they can to make our lives easier - leaving us to concentrate on our core business.”

Dr Dave Ranyard, CEO of Dream Reality Interactive

Learn new skills at interactive workshops, test the latest advances in VR and discover how to use Immersive Technology to drive your business goals.

A VARIETY OF SPACES TO SUIT YOUR MOOD

Escape from your desk into offbeat breakout areas for casual brainstorming and one-to-one collaborations.

“ This is more than
a workspace,
it's a playground
for the mind. ”

CHILD-FRIENDLY COWORKING

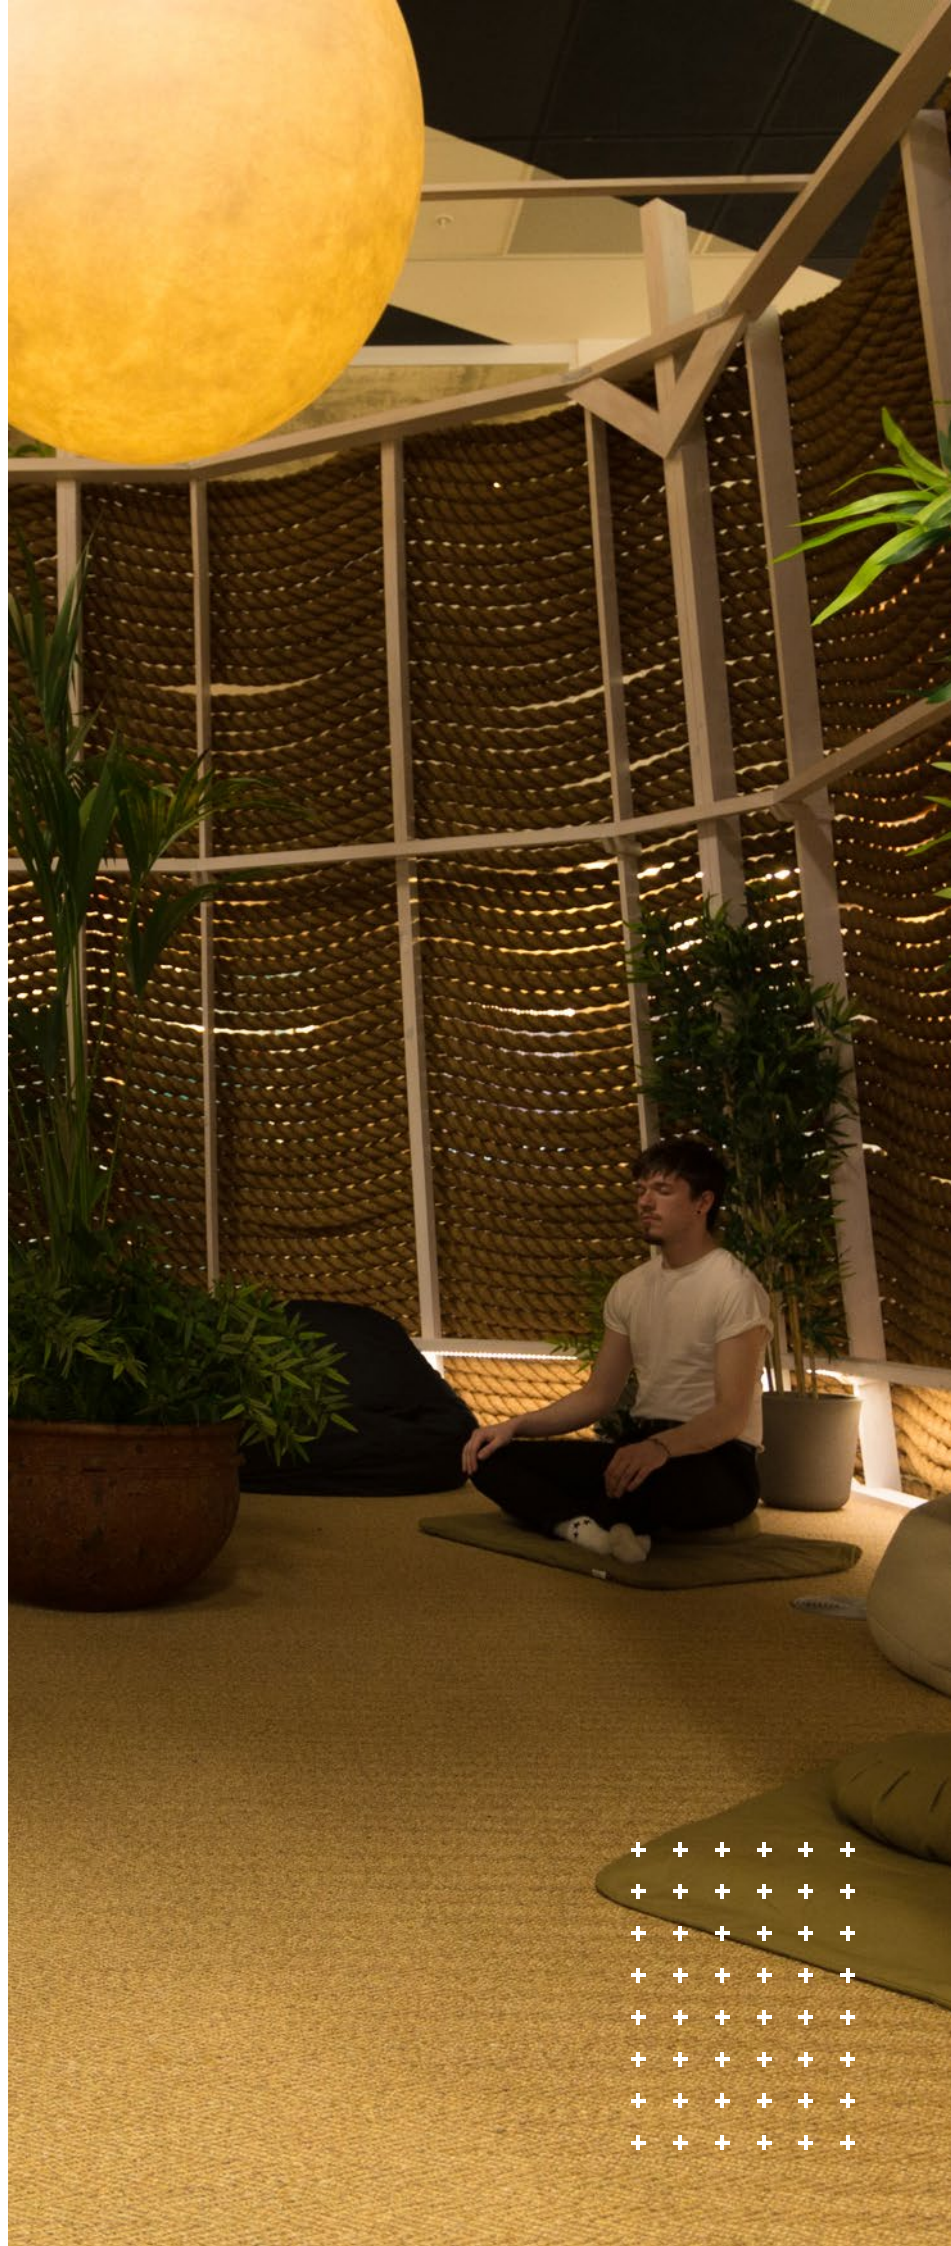

Our Kids Studio is perfect for your little tribe with an adjoining workspace, so you can work whilst they play.

PRIVATE STUDIOS

Undisturbed space to build your company culture. Designed for teams of 6 to 30 people.

PRIVATE MEETING ROOMS

Stand out spaces for intimate interviews, workshops and the big ones; pitches, presentations and product launches.

THE MEDIAWORKS BUILDING AT WHITE CITY

London's largest and most exciting regeneration project, White City Place offers an unparalleled opportunity to build the destination district of the future.

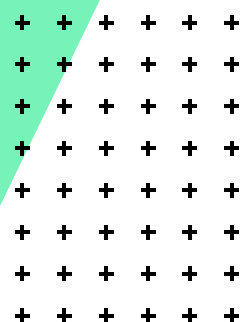

RIBA award-winning architects, Allies and Morrison are reimagining a collection of buildings to fuel, sustain and grow creative businesses.

OUTDOOR LIFE

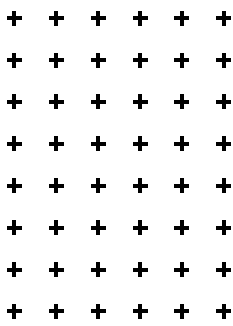

A landscaped central avenue is the focus of creative life at White City Place. Designed to inspire its creative community, informal meeting spaces within the WiFi-enabled public realm allow a seamless work-life blend.

A LIFESTYLE

Demand for an alternative to the traditional 9-5 lifestyle is met with a gym, late night restaurants, cafe culture and leisure options. A lively street of shops primarily features up and coming brands and independent operators alongside the luxury, premium and high street retailers and leisure options in nearby Westfield London.
