1 min
WALK

Backstage Bar & Grill: A beloved dive-bar turned karaoke hotspot, operating since the 1930s. Its dim, intimate ambiance, lively karaoke nights, and historic ties to former MGM employees (even Wizard of Oz Munchkins) make it a storied local institution with great drinks, friendly staff, and nonstop entertainment.

5 min
WALK

Jackson Market and Deli: A hidden-gem deli and market operating since 1925, known for custom sandwiches, wraps, fresh-made breakfast pastries, and grocery staples. A serene backyard patio, lush with greenery, creates a tranquil oasis perfect for morning coffee or a leisurely lunch.

7 min
WALK

Go Get Em Tiger: A vibrant bar-style café offering house-roasted specialty coffees, pastries, artisan sandwiches, and standout drinks like Turmeric Almond Macadamia and Espresso Tonic. Modern indoor and outdoor seating and efficient service make it ideal for work, meetups, or casual brunch vibes.

5 min
WALK

Leilo Coffee: A stylish specialty café known for expertly brewed espresso, creative seasonal drinks, and house-made pastries. Its minimalist design and welcoming atmosphere make it ideal for morning routines, casual meetings, or enjoying high-quality coffee in a relaxed, modern setting.

6 min
WALK

Downtown Culver: A vibrant culinary corridor anchored by elegant spots like The Culver Hotel Bar & Restaurant, combining European café charm, live music, garden lounges, and refined cocktails. Its speakeasy-style Velvet Lounge and lush Sunday suppers make it a magnet for refined, convivial dining.

8 min
WALK

The Conservatory for Coffee, Tea & Cocoa: A long-standing, family-owned roastery and café, revered for its house-roasted coffees and expansive tea selection. A cozy, neighborhood favorite since the mid-1990s, where regulars are welcomed by name and every drink is a craft highlight.

9 min
WALK

Café Vida: A healthy-focused café blending low-fat California and Latin-inspired dishes, fresh-pressed juices, salads, and shareable plates. Known for fresh ingredients, attentive service, and vegetarian options, it's a flavorful yet health-conscious choice.

10 min
WALK

Nishi Poke & Ramen Bar: A casual yet fresh Hawaiian-Japanese fusion spot serving vibrant poke bowls (like Aloha, Hoku, Rainbow) alongside signature ramen varieties. Scratch-made, flavorful offerings consistently highlight premium ingredients and coastal flair.

3 min
DRIVE

Erewhon: An upscale, health-focused grocery and café chain offering impeccably curated organic and macrobiotic products—from celebrity-inspired smoothies to a juice and coffee bar, sushi, and a hot soup counter. Known for its chic, meticulously organized aisles and elevated wellness experience.

4 min
DRIVE

Hey, Sunshine Kitchen: A vibrant, women-owned, fast-casual vegan eatery serving colorful, non-GMO plant-based fare—think hot sandwiches, tacos, salads, chickpea nuggets, and Mediterranean-style bowls. It's beloved for its bright flavors, soulful meals, and mission to "nourish your inner shine."

About the neighborhood

Property is within a short walk to many amenities including restaurants, coffee shops and retail.

Culver City is one of the most desirable neighborhoods for creative, tech, and media companies because of it's central location, the quality of creative office space, and diverse amenities.

This area is also benefited by how easy it is to access both the 405 and 10 Freeways.
