

First-class office space in a prominent Amherst location

300 Corporate Parkway is a two-story building with 133,000 square feet of Class A office space and 475 car parks. The building serves as the center of activity at University Corporate Centre with its expansive atrium for dining, small meetings and large social activities. It also offers the Sunshine Café, a fully equipped fitness center, and an enclosed walkway between Building 300 and Building 500. The skylights provide abundant natural sunlight while a monumental staircase overlooks the expansive atrium which is finished in dark cherry with marble and brass accents.

The building is adjacent to the outdoor courtyard for a quiet lunch or after-work gatherings and provides lush landscaping and various private and communal seating areas indoors and out.
