LIFE IN MCKINNEY TEXAS

McKinney, the fourth-largest growing city in the U.S., is an affluent, pro-business community located 30 minutes north of Dallas. It is the largest city in Collin County, which also ranks as the ninth-fastest growing county in the nation. As the city continues its strong annual growth, its connectivity via major highways positions it as a prime location for businesses and residents. Offering a safe environment, sought-after residential communities, outstanding public schools, and an exceptional quality of life. McKinney is emerging as a preferred location for corporate relocations and expansions. It offers businesses exceptional access to a rapidly expanding well-educated workforce.
