About AVON

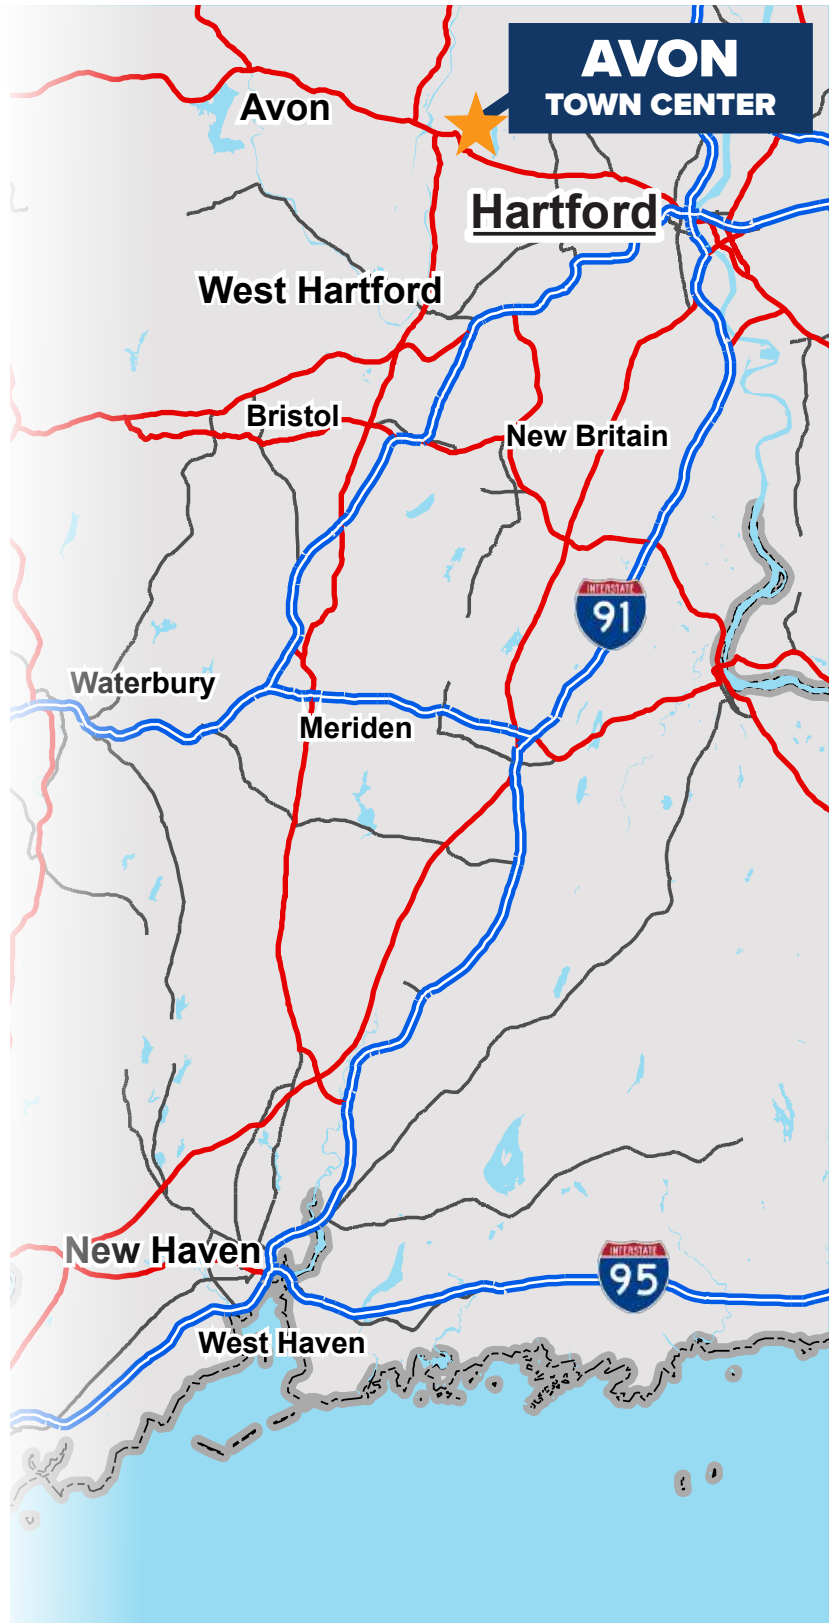

Its name comes from the Avon River in England, the pristine acreage an assemblage under a land grant from the King himself. Presenting a generational opportunity, twenty plus years in the making to create a real and authentic live, work, shop and play mixed-use environment of 1.2 million square feet at the epicenter of the #1 place to live in the Capital Region of CT by Hartford Magazine- the Town of Avon.

Avon Village Center is uniquely positioned- front and center on Route 44, the gateway town to the Farmington Valley with Central Connecticut's most prosperous and highly educated demographic profile. It's said that Avon's past is present curating a unique "Community" by knitting together local artists at the Farmington Valley Arts Center with boutique Main Street retail and accentuating place-making the Farmington Valley Greenway and Nod Brook that meander throughout the exceptional acreage. Avon Village Center is meticulously designed to be that authentic destination, where inspired experiences are the norm not the exception. Avon Village Center will feature a mix of innovative first to market retail, farm to table restaurants and a diverse assortment of residential housing integrated into a development like no other in the Farmington Valley

LOCATION

Avon Village Center is located along Route 44 in Avon, Connecticut, a town 10 miles west of Hartford. With roughly 875 businesses in operation, Avon has a vibrant commercial/retail corridor, the heart of which runs east to west along Route 44 (West Main Street). Avon is home to several major industry headquarters: Old Castle, Coupons, Inc., Ironwood Capital Management, Magellan Health, RR Donnelly Inc, and Relexite Film Fibers Inc.

AVC is readily accessible, with Route 44 providing access from east to west and Route 10 providing access to the north and south. Avon is located about 10 miles west of Hartford and the I-91 and I-84 interchange.
