LOCATION

St Helens forms part of the Liverpool City Region and benefits from its proximity to major economic hubs. The subject property is located off Bold Street, and it was the former Huws Gray premises up and till December 2025.

The town has a strong industrial and manufacturing heritage which initially centred around glass, pharmaceutical and textile industries. St Helens has a population of 185,000 and is recognised as a key commercial location for industrial warehousing and logistics. The town is a key contributor to the Liverpool City Region’s £33 billion economy.

St Helens has great road communications with J23 of the M6 motorway 5 miles to the east, accessed via the A580 East Lancashire Road. J7 of the M62 is 4 miles to the south, accessed via the A570 St Helens Linkways.

The M62 motorway provides easy access to both Manchester and Liverpool City Centres in under 30 minutes travel time. The M62/M6 interchange is located 7 miles to the east, providing immediate access to regional and national motorways.

Rail links are also strong, with St Helens Central and St Helens Junction providing direct links to Manchester and Liverpool. London is accessible in just over 2 hours via the West Coast Main Line and offers links to Birmingham, Edinburgh and Glasgow.

Air communications are excellent with Liverpool John Lennon and Manchester Airport only 15 miles and 29 miles, respectively.
