Location

Cavendish House is located in the heart of Guildford's historic High Street, offering immediate access to a wide range of shops, restaurants, and amenities. Guildford mainline station is within walking distance, providing fast rail links to London Waterloo, while the nearby A3 connects easily to the M25, Heathrow, and Gatwick. This prime town centre location is ideal for businesses seeking convenience and connectivity.

Description

Two high-quality office suites totaling approx. 1,198 sq ft in a prime central Guildford location. Offering a mix of open-plan and private workspace, the offices benefit from air-conditioning, modern aluminium windows, and shared WCs with further refurbishments to be made before completion in September. These offices also access a communal kitchen.

Private parking is available at the rear of the building in Eastgate Gardens, making this an ideal option for businesses seeking a professional and well-connected base.
