Lubbock serves as the economic and cultural center of West Texas, strategically positioned at the intersection of Interstate 27 and four major U.S. highways. Known as the “Hub City,” Lubbock’s economy benefits from a diverse employment base anchored by Texas Tech University, major healthcare systems, and a robust manufacturing sector. With a regional draw exceeding 650,000 residents across the South Plains, Lubbock functions as the retail, healthcare, educational, and agricultural hub for a vast multi-county region.

markets including Dallas-Fort Worth, Austin, San Antonio, Albuquerque, and Oklahoma City. Recent infrastructure investments, including the expansion of the Ports-to-Plains corridor and new manufacturing facilities like Leprino Foods, signal continued economic momentum.

With more than 16,000 college graduates entering the workforce annually from five area institutions of higher education, Lubbock remains a hotbed for talent. The city combines its entrepreneurial spirit with modern momentum, attracting over 7 million visitors annually and seeing tourism growth of 24% over the past decade. Lubbock’s vibrant arts scene, wine country, and West Texas hospitality continue to draw new residents seeking affordable living with metropolitan amenities.

The market has demonstrated exceptional growth, with the city’s population reaching 269,293 and the county projected to experience 28% growth by 2060. The city’s strategic location 330 miles northwest of Dallas-Fort Worth positions it equidistant to both coasts, making it an ideal distribution hub with access to major

REGIONAL EMPLOYMENT DRIVERS

Texas Tech University

The Carnegie-designated Tier One research institution serves as Lubbock's largest public employer with over 6,635 employees. The university enrolls approximately 40,000 students and produces more than 16,000 graduates annually. Texas Tech's leadership has transformed the regional economy from agriculture-focused to a diverse, knowledge-driven powerhouse spanning technology, healthcare, and innovation.

Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center

The comprehensive academic health institution employs over 5,017 faculty and staff, operating schools of medicine, nursing, pharmacy, and health professions. TTUHSC conducts transformative medical research and provides essential healthcare education, serving as the primary physician training pipeline for the vast region between I-35 and the Rocky Mountains.

Covenant Health System

The major healthcare network employs approximately 5,000 workers across its hospital system and affiliated facilities. Covenant serves as one of the primary healthcare destinations for West Texas and Eastern New Mexico, providing comprehensive medical services including specialized cardiac care, oncology, and women's health services. UMC Health System University Medical Center employs approximately 4,000 healthcare professionals, serving as the regional Level I trauma center and primary teaching hospital for Texas Tech physicians. UMC's recent expansions and advanced treatment capabilities reinforce Lubbock's position as the major medical hub for nearly 2 million people across the Southwest.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

WRITTEN AGREEMENTS ARE REQUIRED IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS: A license holder who performs brokerage activity for a prospective buyer of residential property must enter into a written agreement with the buyer before showing any residential property to the buyer or if no residential property will be shown, before presenting an offer on behalf of the buyer. This written agreement must contain specific information required by Texas law. For more information on these requirements, see section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code. Even if a written agreement is not required, to avoid disputes, all agreements between you and a broker should be in writing and clearly establish: (i) the broker's duties and responsibilities to you and your obligations under the agreement; and (ii) the amount or rate of compensation the broker will receive and how this amount is determined.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN SHOW PROPERTY TO A BUYER/TENANT WITHOUT REPRESENTING THE BUYER/TENANT IF:

- The broker has not agreed with the buyer/tenant, either orally or in writing, to represent the buyer/tenant;
- The broker is not otherwise acting as the buyer/tenant's agent at the time of showing the property;
- The broker does not provide the buyer/tenant opinions or advice regarding the property or real estate transactions generally; and
- The broker does not perform any other act of real estate brokerage for the buyer/tenant.

Before showing a residential property to an unrepresented prospective buyer, a license holder must enter into a written agreement that contains the information required by section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code. The agreement may not be exclusive and must be limited to no more than 14 days.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.

EACH PARTY SHALL CONDUCT ITS OWN INDEPENDENT INVESTIGATION AND DUE DILIGENCE.

Any party contemplating or under contract or in escrow for a transaction is urged to verify all information and to conduct their own inspections and investigations including through appropriate third party independent professionals selected by such party. All financial data should be verified by the party including by obtaining and reading applicable documents and reports and consulting appropriate independent professionals. KW Commercial makes no warranties and/or representations regarding the veracity, completeness, or relevance of any financial data or assumptions. KW Commercial does not serve as a financial advisor to any party regarding any proposed transaction.

All data and assumptions regarding financial performance, including that used for financial modeling purposes, may differ from actual data or performance. Any estimates of market rents and/or projected rents that may be provided to a party do not necessarily mean that rents can be established at or increased to that level. Parties must evaluate any applicable contractual and governmental limitations as well as market conditions, vacancy factors and other issues in order to determine rents from or for the property. Legal questions should be discussed by the party with an attorney. Tax questions should be discussed by the party with a certified public accountant or tax attorney. Title questions should be discussed by the party with a title officer or attorney. Questions regarding the condition of the property and whether the property complies with applicable governmental requirements should be discussed by the party with appropriate engineers, architects, contractors, other consultants and governmental agencies. All properties and services are marketed by Keller Williams Lubbock in compliance with all applicable fair housing and equal opportunity laws.
