Unit 2, Manor Farm, Sutton, Bedfordshire SG19 2ND

LOCATION

The premises are located central to the village in a very pleasant rural setting with good access to the premises off the High Street. Sutton is an attractive village with access onto the Potton and Biggleswade road with Biggleswade about 3km to the south west, which has a connection to the main line railway into London, and also junction with the A1. A southerly connection to the A1 south of Biggleswade at the new Langford overpass is about 7km distant.

DESCRIPTION

The premises comprise a fully refurbished building of brick construction. The building has new insulated roof with integral translucent roof lights. The unit has toilet facilities and an office. The eaves height is 11'11" (3.62m) and the ridge height 16'10" (5.13m). The access is via roller shutter doors about 11'3" wide x 9'4" high (3.429w x 2.84h) with clear open space internally.
