MORE THAN WORK

You and your clients can enjoy an easy commute, impressive meeting rooms, and the best of Birmingham's cultural centre on your doorstep. The office also has bars and restaurants scattered all around the office. This makes it easy to find a good spot for an after work social. This city-centre office is suitable for businesses big and small, with hot desks, designated desks, co-working spaces, private offices, or even entire floors all available on flexible terms. Whatever your business needs, there's something for you!

Cubo Birmingham opened in May 2022 and is located in the iconic new Paradise Circus development - Birmingham's most exciting and highly sought after £1bn new Grade A commercial scheme. Here, businesses will find themselves in a hub of activity and a prime location for city working in Birmingham. A office destination which is not only home to many leading national and regional office occupiers, but also create its own community feel with plenty of restaurants and bars.

Designed over one huge floor with panoramic views over Birmingham's city centre, it is a definitely an impressive space for you and your clients. Ample co-working space, reception area, barista station, kitchens and meeting rooms and of course an extensive range of private offices and designated desks. You can access the Cubo floor via lift or stairs.

Ade Cheatham, CEO, Cooper Parry:

"Our move into the super cool Cubo space at the beating heart of Birmingham comes at a brilliant time for Cooper Parry. Building on our strong market presence across the region, we have seriously ambitious plans for growth over the coming few years.

"This stunning new base gives us another perfect platform to keep disrupting the marketplace in the West Midlands and beyond. The central location, creative workspace and energetic vibe are a great fit for our unique culture."
