West Central

Synopsis

The West Central submarket is a critical infill region of Las Vegas, bounded by the I-15 to the east and the master-planned Summerlin community to the west, nestled between the Northwest and Southwest submarkets. This area is defined by a unique architectural tapestry, blending newer suburban neighborhoods with the historic “Rancho” corridor, famous for its vintage estate-style homes and mid-century modern residences along Rancho Boulevard.

As one of the most established and densely populated segments of the valley, it features a high concentration of multi-family housing and mature residential grids that maximize the available land. This density is anchored by robust retail hubs, most notably the world-renowned Chinatown along Spring Mountain Road, where a bustling three-mile corridor of diverse international dining and commerce serves as a major economic engine for the entire city.

Professional Sports

Synopsis

The Las Vegas Valley is home to many sports, most of which take place in the unincorporated communities around Las Vegas rather than in the city itself. It has rapidly established itself as a premier sports city, hosting a lineup of major professional teams that have brought home championships. These successful teams not only foster fan interest and growth but also play a significant role in strengthening the local economy.

The Vegas Golden Knights, the city's first major league franchise, wasted no time making their mark by winning the Stanley Cup in 2023. The Las Vegas Aces have dominated the WNBA, securing back-to-back championships in 2022 and 2023. The Las Vegas Raiders, while having their championship triumphs tied to their time in Oakland and Los Angeles, have a storied history that includes three world championship victories (XI, XV, and XVIII). The Las Vegas Athletics brings a legacy of 9 world championships and are looking to add more at their new home. These teams have not only captivated local fans but have also helped solidify reputation of the city as a major player in the world of professional sports.

Las Vegas is also a great place for minor league sports, with the Las Vegas Aviators (Minor League Baseball, Triple-A affiliate of the Las Vegas Athletics), the Henderson Silver Knights (American Hockey League, affiliate of the Vegas Golden Knights), and the Las Vegas Lights FC (USL Championship soccer) all calling the area home. The city also has indoor football and box lacrosse teams, the Vegas Knight Hawks and the Las Vegas Desert Dogs, respectively, who share a venue in Henderson.
