LOCATION

Sidcup is an area of south-east London, primarily in the London Borough of Bexley and bordering the London Boroughs of Bromley and Greenwich.

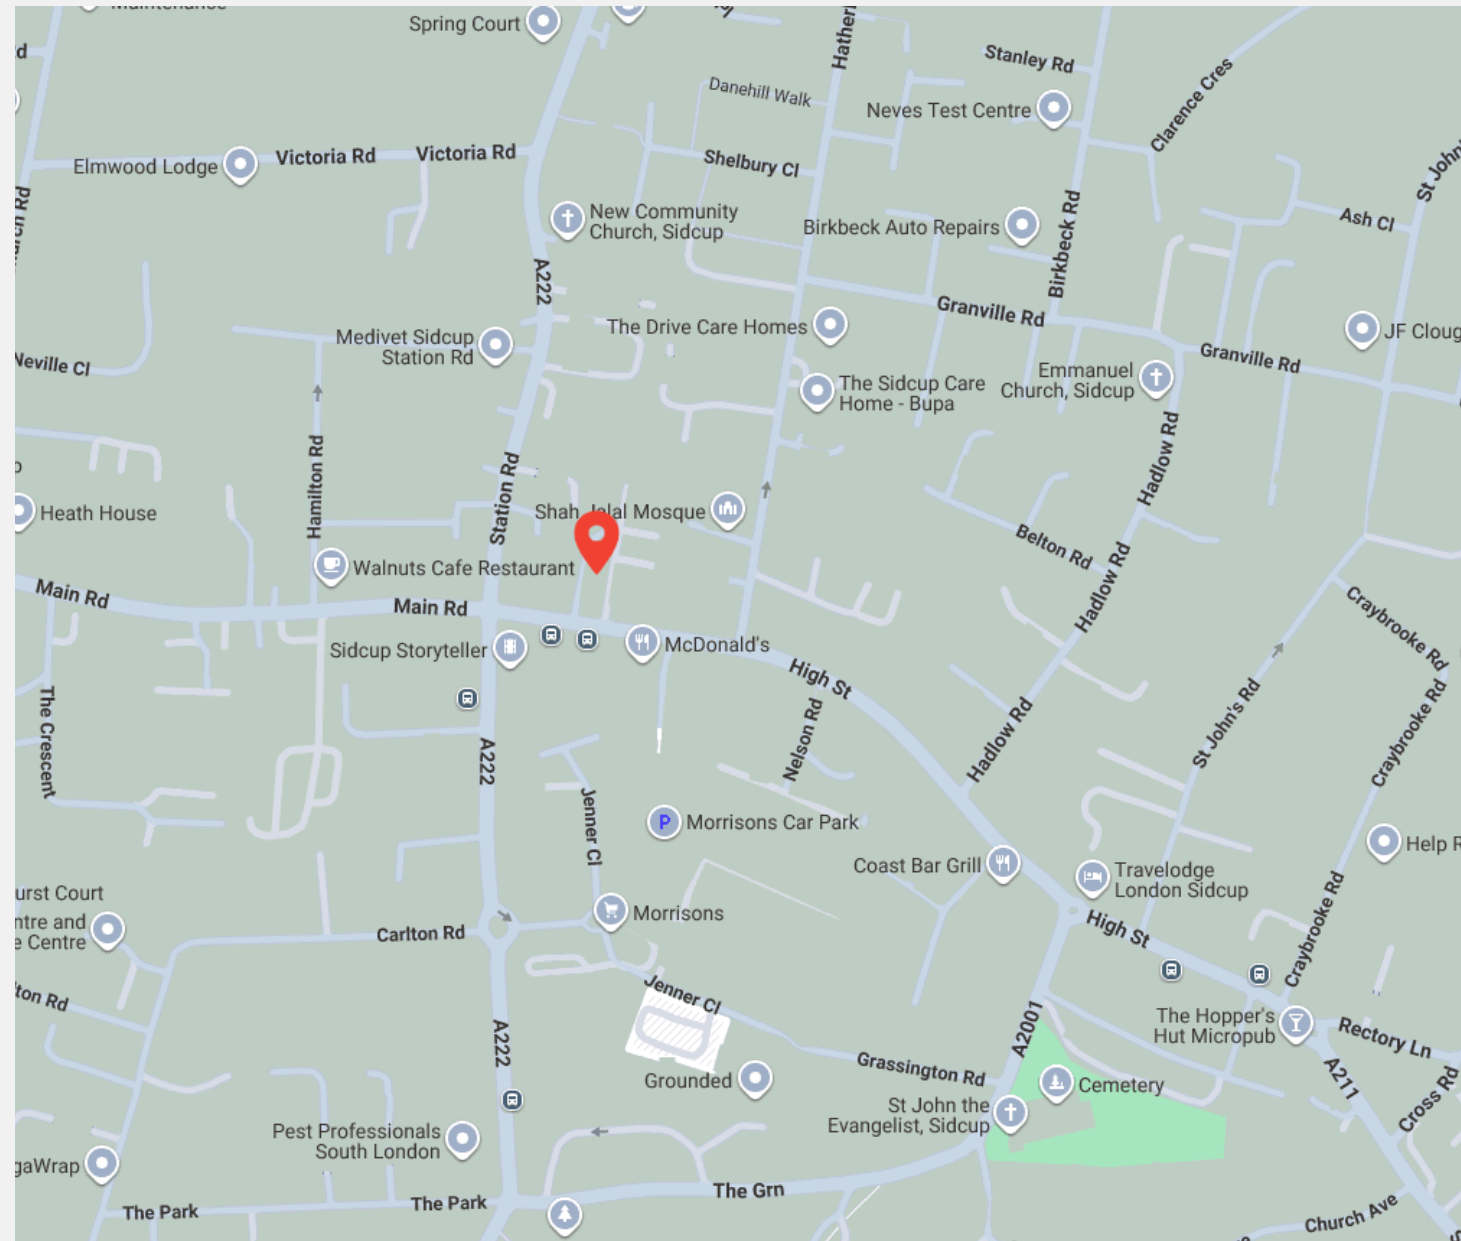

The town is located on the A211 with the A20 providing easy access to Junction 5 of the M25, 5 miles (8km) to the east. Central London is located 14 miles (23km) to the north west.

Sidcup benefits from a busy and well-connected railway station 0.5 miles away from the subject premises, providing direct services into London Bridge (approx. 23 mins) and London Charing Cross (approx. 38 mins).

Considerable development has taken place within Sidcup in recent years including a new Waitrose and Travelodge in the High Street, and a Premier Inn and new Marks & Spencer with (59 flats) adjacent to the train station.

Storyteller, a 3 screen Cinema (developed by Bexley Council) has also recently opened directly opposite the subject premises, on the corner of Sidcup High Street and Station Road.

It also features a bar, coffee shop, live performance space, community hub and Sidcup Library.
