Area OVERVIEW

Frisco, Texas is one of the fastest-growing and most sought-after communities in the Dallas–Fort Worth metroplex, known for its strong economy, exceptional schools, and thoughtfully planned development. Located about 30 miles north of Dallas along the Dallas North Tollway, the city has transformed from a small railroad stop into a major suburban and corporate hub, attracting families, businesses, and national sports organizations. Frisco’s population has surged over the past two decades, supported by high-quality neighborhoods, abundant parks and trails, and a thriving retail and entertainment landscape anchored by destinations such as The Star, Stonebriar Centre, and PGA Frisco. Its blend of economic opportunity, modern infrastructure, and high quality of life continues to position Frisco as one of the premier growth markets in North Texas.
