Property Description

Albany Medical Clinic is a five-storey, 47,774-square-foot medical outpatient building that is home to one of Canada’s oldest full-service healthcare clinics. Albany Medical Clinic’s co-located Family Health Group is staffed by 30+ family doctors and 40+ specialists, complemented by a team that includes nurses and other direct physician supports, providing patients with walk-in and comprehensive healthcare services in one location. The building is also tenanted by LlifeLabs and a diagnostic imaging centre. Easy access is available via public transit or car, via Broadview Station or the nearby Don Valley Parkway.
