GENERAL DESCRIPTION

A mid terraced commercial property of brick elevations with pitched tiled roof coverings at the front and flat roof coverings at the rear. The ground floor was previously used as a funeral directors with several separate meeting rooms built using stud partitioning. The first floor is accessed internally however relocating the staircase could create a separate area suitable for residential conversion. The property benefits from a new flat roof over the rear, uPVC double glazed windows and a new combi boiler providing central heating and hot water. The property comprises a front reception/sales area, separate front sales area, three separate office/treatment rooms and an open plan reception area, plus 2 x WC's and kitchen. On the first floor are 4 x separate reception rooms which could be used as offices, ancillary storage or converted into a 2 bedroom flat, subject to planning.

LOCATION

The property forms part of an established terrace of mix used commercial properties along Nantwich Road which comprises a vibrant secondary shopping area on the outskirts of Crewe town centre. Crewe railway station and South Cheshire College are both within ½ a mile.
