Indian Wells, California

OVERVIEW

Indian Wells is one of the most affluent and desirable communities in the Coachella Valley, consistently ranking among the top places to live in both the Palm Springs region and Riverside County.

Indian Wells is known for its exceptionally high income levels. According to U.S. Census Bureau data, the city has one of the highest per-capita incomes in the United States, reflecting the area's strong purchasing power, luxury residential base, and high-net-worth population. (Note: Per-capita income is an average per person and is not calculated by multiplying for a household size.)

#1 Best Place to Live in the Palm Springs Area

#3 Best Suburb to Live in Riverside County

These rankings highlight the city's exceptional quality of life, low crime, master-planned neighborhoods, world-class amenities, and meticulously maintained environment.

Indian Wells is internationally recognized as the host city of the BNP Paribas Open, the second-largest professional tennis tournament in the United States and one of the most prestigious events on the global tennis calendar. The tournament is held at the Indian Wells Tennis Garden, home to the largest tennis-specific stadium in the world, drawing nearly half a million visitors each spring.

Indian Wells offers unparalleled proximity to luxury resorts, championship golf courses, fine dining, and premier retail.

It is also the only city in the Coachella Valley where an office property is located on the residential side of Highway 111, positioned directly adjacent to the area's dominant retail and lifestyle destinations—an exceptional advantage for visibility, accessibility, and walkability.
