Description

Formerly a buckle maker's factory, St Paul's Place has undergone a comprehensive and sympathetic conversion to a successful mixed use scheme, with high quality apartments on the upper floors and modern office accommodation on the ground and first floors. The attractive art deco façade has been retained, with the accommodation wrapping around a central landscaped courtyard. The building further benefits from a concierge and secure on site car parking.

Location

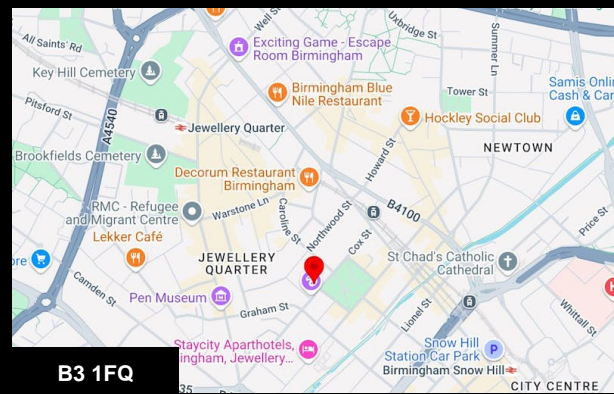

St Paul's Place occupies a commanding position overlooking the much sought after St Paul's Square, the City's last Georgian square, within the vibrant Jewellery Quarter district. The Jewellery Quarter has a strong creative vibe and attracts businesses from across the media, design and professional services sectors. Occupiers are attracted by the numerous popular restaurants, bars and cafes, whilst still being within walking distance of the main City Centre.

The location is well connected, with easy access to the Midland Metro tram line, Snow Hill train station and the A38M Aston Expressway, leading to Junction 6 of the M6 Motorway.
