Property Overview

Located just west of the intersection at Elston and Cicero Avenues, this newly updated three-story plus lower level office building is for sale. The building has been divided into multiple office suites, occupied by long-term tenants with short-term leases. Perfect opportunity for an investor or user looking for a strong cash flow with upside potential. Good in-place income with potential to add value. Close to Edens and Kennedy expressways and public transportation.

Jefferson Park is on the northwest side of the city and features several commercial corridors within the largely residential neighborhood including along Elston Avenue and Northwest Highway. This neighborhood benefits from a dense urban population with strong demographics and is home to numerous restaurants, shops and commercial and residential properties.
