Opportunity Overview

Bright, light-filled office space is now available in the iconic Florence Building, located in the heart of downtown Missoula, Montana. Positioned just steps from restaurants, retail shops, government offices, and professional services, this landmark property offers a truly exceptional downtown location.

Leasable options include private offices, open workspaces, dedicated meeting rooms, and even large-format suites suitable for a variety of business needs. Some offices are generously sized and can accommodate shared workspaces or team environments.

Tenants enjoy convenient elevator access, well-maintained Art Deco architecture, and use of a striking historic lobby. The Florence Building is home to a dynamic mix of tenants, including tech companies, boutique retailers, and professional firms.

A Tenant Improvement (TI) allowance is available for qualified tenants. Floor plans are flexible and can be tailored to fit individual business operations. The surrounding area is highly walkable and bike-friendly, with continuous infrastructure improvements enhancing accessibility.

Suite availability:

- Multiple configurations available for businesses of various sizes
- Demising options possible to accommodate multiple tenants
- Limited small office spaces available—please inquire for current availability
