Exceptional leasing opportunity in a landmark commercial property situated on a prominent corner lot in downtown Port Allegany. This impressive 7,000-square-foot, two-story building served as a banking institution continuously from 1888 through 2022, offering tenants the rare opportunity to occupy a well-established and historically significant property.

Featuring excellent visibility from multiple streets, this corner property provides outstanding exposure for businesses seeking a highly recognizable location. The building offers substantial open space and a flexible layout that can accommodate a single tenant or be divided into multiple suites for office, professional, retail, financial, medical, or mixed commercial uses.
