INTRODUCTION

The property is located on Airlie Street — the B952 — which is the main road leading into and through the village of Alyth. An affluent village, Alyth, is set a few miles away from Blairgowrie and Coupar Angus. Alyth is a former market town, and the area is steeped in history.

The business is presently closed, and the property has formally traded as The Peking Garden takeaway.

The property offers an ideal business opportunity for a hands on operator looking to put their own ideas into action and work closely with the local community and its visitors.

THE PROPERTY

The property comprises a takeaway premise arranged over ground floor of a 2 storey plus attic traditional style building. The property has 2 separate entrances, both accessed directly from Airlie Street, the property joins internally to the rear of the building.

The entrance to the left of the building leads into the carry out area with servery and access to the kitchen, preparation area and storage. The entrance to the right leads into the café area with access to the toilets and through to the carry out.

The premises cannot be brought into immediate use as a Class 3 commercial property, as installation of a ventilation flue is required. The property is offered with the benefit of planning consent and a contractor's quote for the necessary installation.
