Executive Summary

Executive Summary

NAI Miami | Fort Lauderdale Commercial Real Estate Services, Worldwide, is pleased to offer for sale 1515–1543 NW South River Drive, Miami, Florida 33125, a rare waterfront development opportunity located along the Miami River in the heart of Miami's rapidly evolving urban core. The offering consists of three contiguous parcels totaling approximately 1.77 acres (77,101 square feet) with 296 linear feet of frontage on the Miami River, 11 existing 50-foot boat slips, and 36 units per acre per T4-R zoning.

The property is strategically located within the Miami River District, between Downtown Miami and Miami International Airport. The site benefits from immediate access to Interstate 95, State Road 836, the Health District, Brickell, Wynwood, and the Central Business District, placing it within minutes of some of Miami-Dade County's largest employment centers and most active neighborhoods.

The property's location directly across from River Landing, a recently completed mixed-use development featuring residential, retail, office, and dining uses, highlights the continued investment and growth occurring throughout the area.

The surrounding neighborhood benefits from several major demand drivers, including the University of Miami Health System and Jackson Memorial Hospital campus, one of the largest medical districts in the United States. Additional nearby attractions include LoanDepot Park, Calle Ocho, the Miami Riverwalk, the Miami River Greenway, and Miami Freedom Park, the future home of Inter Miami CF.

As Miami continues to experience population growth, business expansion, and increased investment activity, waterfront properties within the urban core have become increasingly limited. The combination of direct river frontage, existing marina infrastructure, proximity to major transportation corridors, and access to Miami's primary employment centers creates a compelling opportunity for investors and developers seeking a well-positioned asset within a growing submarket.

The property represents an opportunity to acquire a sizable riverfront site in a market characterized by strong fundamentals, ongoing redevelopment activity, and limited waterfront land availability. The property's location and accessibility position it to benefit from the continued growth and investment occurring throughout the Miami River District and the greater Downtown Miami area.

Location & Market Overview

The property is located between the Miami Central Business District and the Miami International Airport, along the edge of the Miami River on the northern section bordering Overtown.

The property is located in the Miami River District, centered around the 5.5-mile-long Miami River, which flows from the Miami Canal through the epicenter of Greater Downtown Miami. The Miami River District is currently undergoing a commercial and residential revitalization with new amenities like the Miami Riverwalk, Miami River Greenway, major parks, and boatyards along with new retail, residential, and hospitality developments.

Location Map

The area is anchored by several key attractions that enhance its appeal to residents, visitors, and businesses alike. Highlights include LoanDepot Park, home of the Miami Marlins and a major entertainment destination; the culturally renowned Calle Ocho, the heart of Little Havana known for its restaurants, music, festivals, and Cuban heritage; Grapeland Park & Water Park, a popular recreational amenity near Miami International Airport; and Miami Freedom Park, the city's transformative new mixed-use development anchored by Inter Miami CF's state-of-the-art soccer stadium. Together, these destinations contribute to the area's strong tourism, recreation, and cultural appeal, supporting continued economic growth and neighborhood vitality.

Miami River District Overview

The Miami River District is centered around the river that flows from the Miami Canal through the epicenter of Greater Downtown Miami. The land surrounding the Miami River is undergoing a revitalization by residential and commercial developers. Locals are attracted to the Miami Riverwalk, a promenade for residents and visitors alike to shop, dine and enjoy a boutique experience. With nine major parks, which feature a boat ramp, kayak and paddle board launch, pools, playgrounds, basketball, tennis courts and baseball fields, there are numerous opportunities to enjoy a high quality of life.

Recent developments in the area include the Miami River Greenway project, which has completed seven sections totaling 6.8 miles of public pedestrian and bicycle pathways, with an additional planned 3.2 miles left to complete. Additional developments in the area include new residential, major hotels, and retail spaces. Furthermore, the Miami River is known for being an international shipping route and has been dubbed the “Port Miami River.” In all, there are a total of 25 boatyards and marinas with over a dozen international shipping terminals.

MIAMI RIVER GREENWAY

The Miami River Greenway project is a public pedestrian and bike path being built along the Miami River. The development includes landscaping, decorative lights, way-finding signage, historic markers, informational kiosks, benches, art installations and other amenities. To date, the Miami River Greenway is still currently under construction, but has completed a total of 6.8 miles, with an additional 3.2 miles left to be completed. The project is being funded by both public and private sectors in an attempt to continue the revitalization of the Miami River.

Market Drivers

RIVER LANDING

River Landing is a recently completed 370,000 square foot mixed-use development with multifamily, office, retail and 28,000 square feet of riverfront dining. Current tenants include Publix, TJ Maxx, Chase Bank, AT&T, Ross Dress Store, Burlington, Hobby Lobby, Old Navy, Chick-Fil-A, Ficelle Boulangerie & Patisserie, Lime Fresh Mexican Grill, Ulta Beauty, Five Below and Planet Fitness. The development is located in close proximity to five marinas that offer a water taxi for commuting to downtown and is in close proximity to I-95 and the Dolphin Expressway (State Road 836).

DOWNTOWN MIAMI

Downtown Miami, Miami's urban core and Miami-Dade County's largest employment center, continues to be one of the fastest developing cities in the United States. The high levels of residential development in Downtown Miami. Accompanying retail and upcoming projects such as the luxury residences at Miami World Center, are just a few reasons why Downtown Miami was listed as one of the top neighborhoods to invest in around the world. Retail conditions in Downtown Miami indicate a robust trajectory of growth as new attractions such as Frost Science Museum, cultural landmarks, and diverse retail opportunities are added to the mix attracting both local and out of town visitors.

MIAMI HEALTH DISTRICT

The Miami Health District, also known as the Civic Center, is the second largest medical district in the United States behind Houston. It is located at the intersection of Interstate 95 and State Road 836 (Dolphin Expressway) and is one of the largest economic drivers in all South Florida. The Health District boasts more than 2 million square feet of hospitals, laboratories, and research facilities. As one of the largest concentrations of medical-research facilities in the U.S., it is also one of South Florida's densest employment centers with a total area employment of close to 31,000. It is home to the largest public hospital in the United States, Jackson Memorial Hospital, with 1,762 beds; followed by Memorial Hermann Southwest Hospital in Houston (1,408 beds) and Carolinas Medical Center in Charlotte, N.C. (1,269 beds).

Miami-Dade County Multifamily Overview

Absorption, Net Deliveries & Vacancy

Miami's multifamily market remains under significant supply-side pressure as deliveries continue to outpace demand. Market-wide vacancy is 7.7% in the second quarter of 2026, compared to 7.6% a year ago and the market's historical average of 5.6%. While absorption totaled 7,200 units over the past 12 months, this fell short of the 8,300 units delivered, reinforcing a persistent imbalance that has defined the market over the past few years.

The luxury segment, which accounts for the vast majority of new supply, continues to bear the brunt of these dynamics. Despite capturing most of the market's absorption in recent years, the vacancy rate in 4 & 5 Star properties is 11.2%. Downtown Miami, which has added luxury properties at a record pace since 2020, posts one of the highest vacancy rates in the metro. Stabilized assets have not been immune to the increase in vacancy, as elevated competition has pushed vacancy in older properties higher and extended lease-up timelines across the metro.

Rent growth has slowed markedly under these conditions and stands at 0.3% year-over-year today, a sharp deceleration from the post-pandemic surge and even the modest 2% annual growth seen in 2023–2024. Concessions, typically two months free in supply-heavy submarkets, remain widespread, eroding effective rents and limiting pricing power. While prime urban locations such as Downtown Miami and Coral Gables still report positive, albeit tepid, rent trends, performance elsewhere is mixed, with several suburban areas posting rent declines.

Construction activity underscores the challenge ahead. Approximately 15,000 units are underway, more than 90% of which are concentrated in the luxury segment. Downtown Miami alone accounts for roughly one-third of the pipeline, suggesting continued supply pressures in the urban core well into 2026. Although annual deliveries are expected to taper from recent highs, with 6,900 units slated for delivery in 2026, the expected pace remains elevated relative to historical norms, and stabilization periods are lengthening.

Looking ahead, Miami's multifamily market faces a near-term environment defined by elevated vacancy, subdued rent growth, and competitive lease-up conditions. Demand drivers remain intact in the long term, but until construction subsides, operators and investors can expect continued pressure on fundamentals through 2026.

About NAI Miami | Fort Lauderdale

We are independent, owner-operated and locally grown, with the freedom to act quickly and creatively on your behalf. With more invested than other firms, NAI Miami | Fort Lauderdale takes your business personally and is committed to providing the highest level of service and smart execution. Together with other “Member Firms” of NAI Global we are the world’s premier managed network of commercial real estate companies, representing over 375 markets around the world.

Our relationships are the cornerstone of our success. In aligning with our clients to focus on strategic initiatives, not just the next transaction, we consciously choose achieving our client’s goals over immediate internal gain.

At NAI Miami | Fort Lauderdale we possess the multiple disciplines required of a full service real estate firm with expertise in sales and acquisitions, leasing, management, financing, planning, zoning, litigation support and forensic real estate analysis. We serve our clients with a single point of contact that effectively delivers a variety of strategic and tactical solutions across platforms. We understand the realities of today’s business world. The bottom line - we know when we deliver results to our clients, we all benefit.
