Property Highlights

885 West Georgia is prominently positioned in the heart of the Downtown Core towering over the Vancouver Art Gallery, Robson Square and Law Courts. Built in 1987 and maintained immaculately since, the building offers a first-class, professional office experience. Expansive views are complimented by separation from adjacent buildings to promote access to natural light. The building's grand lobby features a rotating public art exhibit, coffee/food amenities, meeting spaces, and the iconic Pendulum by Alan Storey.
