Bizspace has rebranded itself by carrying out a massive renovation of its business premises in Camberwell, South London. This has made it to be very attractive to a lot of business visitors in recent times. The resultant effect is that business visitors are very willing to come back again to patronise their service providers.

Neil Carter

As a small charity, Bizspace has always been very good to us. They have taken our charity status into account when considering rental increases. Anna Henderson at Camberwell is an excellent manager and has helped us immensely over the 4 years that we have been a tenant. Would highly recommend.

Luke Hollowell-Williams

We've been at Camberwell Bizspace for almost four years now, moving from a smaller office to the stylish loft space we currently occupy(). We're a small charity and Anna has always been really helpful and supportive - we feel that we get great value for money!
