Location

South Trinity Road is located circa 2 miles north-west of Edinburgh City Centre just off Ferry Road (A902). It is situated in the highly desirable Trinity area only a short walk from Goldenacre and the Royal Botanical Gardens.

The area is a mixture of commercial and residential and is much sought after due to its close-proximity to the City Centre and other local amenities. There are public transport links available in the immediate area as well as on street, car-parking nearby the property.

Description

The property comprises the lower ground floor of a four-storey traditional built property, currently let to LEAFYscot a microgreen urban farm. The unit sits below a parade of retail units on the ground floor with two floors of residential properties above. Other occupiers in the block include a skin clinic, hair dressing salon, café, funeral directors and chiropractor.

Internally the unit is laid out as one open plan area. Access is gained through a gate and from a set of stairs to the rear of the property. There is a window allowing light into the good-sized area, a concrete floor with chipboard and is well presented. There is no WC currently in the premises, however there are plans for one to be installed.
