Description

Islington Studios is an attractive Victorian warehouse conversion situated within a secure and gated development which has recently undergone a complete refurbishment to bring all interiors to a modern standard led by elements inspired by the building's past.

The development is currently home to an eclectic mix of occupiers including creative, fashion and music. This characterful offering includes communal bike storage, kitchenettes, WCs, meeting rooms, DDA compliant lifts and level access throughout. All units are provided refurbished and open plan, but can be provided fully fitted - subject to terms.

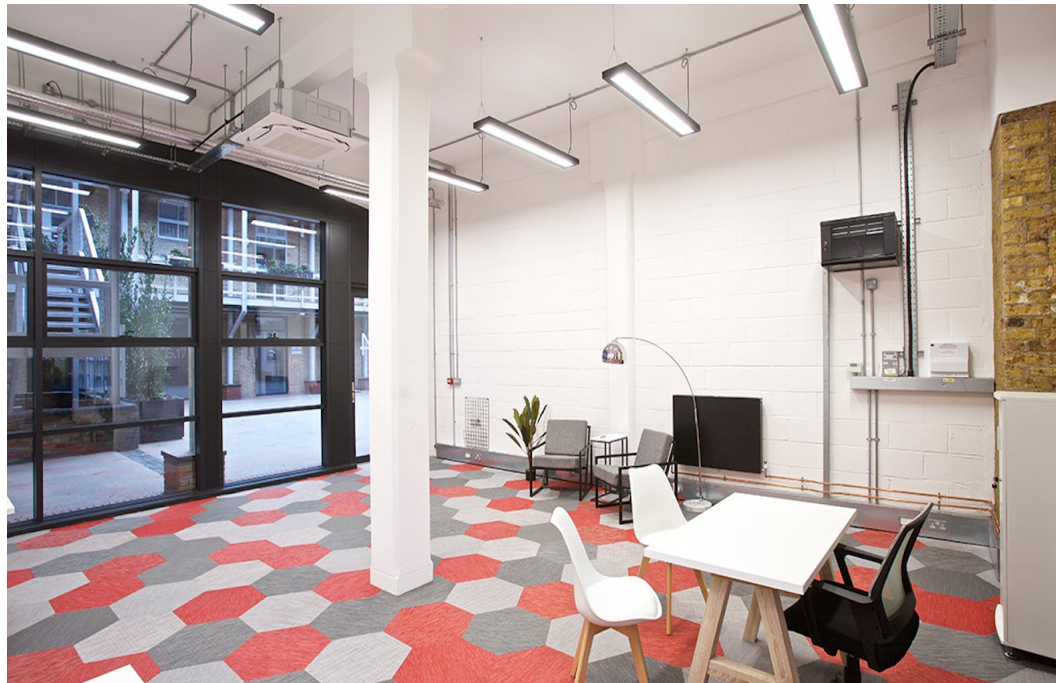

Location

Islington Studios is located in an attractive part of North London in the London Borough of Islington, approximately one mile west of Finsbury Park, one mile south of Crouch End and approximately three miles north of Central London. The area has benefitted from significant regeneration and gentrification in the past decade and the Archway/Holloway area is now considered a desirable location for people to live and work.
