LOCATION OVERVIEW

STUDIO CITY

Studio City submarket is similarly characterized by media and entertainment tenants and residents. It was here on a 20-acre campus that Mac Sennett set up a film studio in the 1920s. The campus later became CBS Studio Center, the centerpiece of the Studio City real estate development.

Today Studio City is still a community for the entertainment industry, albeit those that prefer a more private and low-key lifestyle. It's not unusual to see the likes of Selma Blair, Selena Gomez, Vanessa Hudgens or Katherine McPhee darting in or out of Studio City's main commercial street, Ventura Boulevard, to a local spa or workout class.

Studio City's stretch of Ventura Boulevard is peppered with boutiques such as William B + Friends for women's apparel, Architexture for home furnishings and lifestyle store mag.pi, along with chain stores including Banana Republic, Sephora and Urban Outfitters. There are pilates studios, yoga studios and barre studios and restaurants serving everything from sushi to organic farm fresh fare. The Shops at Sportsman's Lodge a 94,000 SF New Development.

The Studio City Farmers Market, held each Sunday on a street just off Ventura Boulevard, was named "Most Kid Friendly Farmers Market" by Los Angeles magazine for its petting zoo, pony rides, inflatable slides and other attractions for kids. These amenities, along with a luxury community of hillside homes with a median price of $1.6 million, have earned Studio City the No. 9 ranking (of 113) in Niche's Best Neighborhoods to Live in L.A. and No. 20 "Best Neighborhoods for Millennials." StreetAdvisor.com ranks Studio City the No. 3 Best Neighborhood in L.A."
