Location

4–8 Lochrin Buildings occupies a prime position on Gilmore Place, one of Edinburgh’s most vibrant and well-connected city districts. Just moments from the lively neighbourhoods of Bruntsfield and Tollcross, the area benefits from a strong mix of residential density, student population, office workers, and year-round footfall from visitors with lots of guesthouses on the street. Edinburgh City Centre is within a comfortable 10-minute walk, supported by excellent public transport links, making the property easily accessible for customers and staff. The surrounding streets are home to a thriving blend of independent retailers, cafés and established operators such as Tuk Tuk, Pepes, and Edinburgh Orthodontics—an ideal environment for a successful hospitality venue. The area also draws consistent trade from nearby cultural and educational anchors including Edinburgh Napier University and the iconic King’s Theatre.

Description

4–8 Lochrin Buildings presents a rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully fitted, fully operational 100-cover restaurant, already well-established and popular within the local community. The ground floor is impressively laid out, providing a warm and inviting dining environment complemented by a large, fully fitted professional kitchen situated on the same level—an exceptional advantage for operational efficiency. The configuration allows for smooth service flow and the capacity to handle high-volume trade.

The basement level offers extensive and practical ancillary accommodation, including:

- Multiple storage areas
- A dedicated cold room
- Well-presented WC facilities
- Additional operational space ideal for prep, staff facilities, or dry storage

This is a turnkey opportunity suited to both seasoned operators and ambitious new entrants seeking a high-performing site in a proven Edinburgh location.
