Welcome to the bustling and lively heart of the Gravesend community! This restaurant presents an incredible opportunity to lease and operate a well-established neighbourhood favourite. Situated in a desirable location, this charming historical property adjacent to The Old Town hall, has been a cherished gathering spot for locals and visitors alike.

The property has a long commercial history, having previously operated as a restaurant and a museum. The cozy interior boasts a traditional layout, which now requires a complete refurbishment throughout. The property has been vacant for some time and now available for commercial use, a great potential for an up-and-coming hospitality venture
