WEST 3RD ST. MERCANTILE

8400 WEST 3RD STREET, LOS ANGELES

WEST 3RD STREET

Anchored by retail mecca “The Grove” on the east and regional shopping mall “The Beverly Center” on the west, West 3rd Street is one of LA’s most charming, walkable retail corridors—lined with independent boutiques, curated lifestyle shops, beauty and wellness concepts, and a mix of popular cafés and restaurants. West 3rd Street shopping district has a distinctly local, design-forward feel, attracting a steady mix of nearby residents and destination shoppers who come for its boutique fashion, specialty home goods, and longstanding neighborhood eateries like Joan’s on Third. With low-rise storefronts, consistent foot traffic, and local and national retail brands, the West 3rd Street shopping district balances an intimate, community-oriented vibe with the energy of an established West Los Angeles shopping destination.

BACIO DI LATTE:

Internationally renowned BACIO di LATTE serves fresh, authentic Italian gelato made with high-quality ingredients. Enjoy classic flavors and unique seasonal creations.

WEST 3RD STREET MERCANTILE is the newest destination in the West 3rd street shopping district. West 3rd Street Mercantile, inspired by famed Architect, Johannes Van Tilburg FAIA, features up to seven thoughtfully designed boutique retail stores ideal for soft goods, dining, specialty retail, beauty, and modern service concepts. Positioned alongside Bacio di Latte, on a signalized corner and directly across the street from the Palihouse Hotel, West 3rd Street Mercantile offers merchants a rare opportunity to join the West 3rd Street shopping district, a coveted retail shopping destination.
