Description

This industrial warehouse, constructed from brick, features two large shutters, providing access for loading and unloading from the front and side of the premises. The building has been previously divided into two separate units, offering flexibility. Ground floor warehouse space, under mezzanine storage/light assembly/manufacturing space with limited eaves height. First floor mezzanine providing ample storage or workshop space.

Externally there is a secure yard to the eastern side of the property which provides access to two roller shutter doors. The property retains access to the front of the property from Buckingham Road and via locked gates to Megdale Place, there is however no parking directly outside this side of the building.

Location

Aylesbury is the County Town of Buckinghamshire and is located approximately 44 miles northwest of central London 23 miles from Oxford and 15 miles south of Milton Keynes.
