Description

The Tower is ideal for companies looking for spacious and impressive offices, with some of the largest floor plans in this part of the EC1 district. The 5th, 6th & 12th floors have been delivered in a fully fitted and furnished condition.

The Bower is designed by award-winning architects AHMM and comprises a collection of three buildings, each with a distinct character, united in both purpose and integrity.

Three buildings, three distinct identities, one common purpose: to provide exceptional, modern office space of character and integrity, enhanced by substantial public spaces to work, socialise and engage within. All occupiers at The Bower benefit from the significant facilities and amenities located onsite.

Description

A communal cafe and lounge where people from different companies and industries can meet, grab a coffee and a snack or just get away from the office to think and collaborate. This space is also available to occupiers for private functions and events.

Over one acre of landscaped, pedestrianised outside space including numerous places to sit and relax, and featuring public art from local, emerging artists. The 10 new retail spaces within the scheme have been let to some of London's most exciting food and beverage providers including Bone Daddies, Honest Burger, Crudo Cevicheria, Wagamama and Serata Hall.

Location

The Bower sits in the heart of one of the most vibrant and easily accessible districts in the capital. This world-renowned cultural quarter of East London is home to some of the most talked about restaurants and bars in the city, along with a wide array of artisan retailers and independent businesses. Both innovative start-ups and major names in the creative industries are converging on the 24-hour neighbourhood with an authentic character all of its own.

The area is being improved, directly in front of The Bower, by TfL's transformation of Old Street roundabout into a more pedestrian and cycle friendly environment, creating new public space in a peninsula around the station and a new station entrance.
