Description

Situated within the well-established Holford Industrial Estate, this high-quality industrial unit is positioned among major national occupiers including Amazon and Royal Mail.

The premises offer a high bay warehouse with roller shutter door access, complemented by a two-storey office core providing functional workspace across both ground and first floors.

Externally, the property benefits from a secure gated yard and a dedicated parking area, ensuring both convenience and safety. Access is via Elliot Way, providing excellent vehicle circulation and ease of entry for articulated lorries.

This unit presents an ideal opportunity for occupiers seeking a secure, accessible, and strategically located industrial facility.

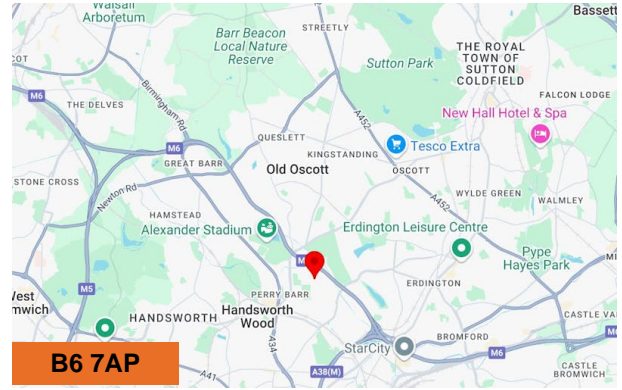

Location

Holford Industrial Estate is approximately 1.5 miles northwest of Junction 6 of the M6 motorway, commonly known as Spaghetti Junction and is situated about 3 miles north of Birmingham City Centre.

This close proximity to Junction 6 provides convenient access to major motorways such as the M5, M42, and M40, facilitating efficient transportation and logistics for businesses operating within the estate
