The Offering

KLNB is pleased to exclusively present 1736 Connecticut Avenue NW, a fully vacant retail building located in the heart of Washington, D.C.'s Dupont Circle neighborhood. Encompassing approximately 4,965 square feet across four levels on a 1,464 SF lot, the property offers investors and users an exceptional leasing or repositioning opportunity along one of the city's most prestigious commercial corridors.

Originally home to D.C.'s first Japanese restaurant, Tokyo Skiyaki, and most recently operated as a Cajun-inspired restaurant and lounge, the building retains a flexible layout, with right of way access to 21st St, that lends itself well to a wide variety of retail, hospitality, or mixed-use concepts. The site is zoned MU-8B/DC, allowing up to 5.0 FAR and 7,320 SF of buildable area (by right), subject to Dupont Circle Historic District guidelines.

Catalyst Projects on the Connecticut Avenue Corridor

Two near-term catalyst projects on the Connecticut Avenue corridor — both delivering approximately 2027 — are set to add residential density, daytime population, and foot traffic within a few blocks of 1736 Connecticut Ave NW.

OFFICE-TO-RESIDENTIAL CONVERSION

The Geneva

POST BROTHERS · HANDEL ARCHITECTS · UNDER CONSTRUCTION

A $750M adaptive-reuse conversion of two mid-century office buildings near Dupont Circle/Kalorama into 531 luxury residences — studios to four-bedroom penthouses, plus ~57,000 SF of ground-floor retail. Two towers, joined by a central lobby and glass skybridge, front both Connecticut and Florida Avenues, directly up the corridor from the subject. Post Brothers closed a $575M financing package — including a record $465M C-PACE loan — and broke ground January 2026. Amenities include a natatorium, spa, fitness center, and landscaped rooftop terrace.

WHY IT MATTERS

Hundreds of new high-income residents within walking distance create a captive, affluent customer base for whatever retail or hospitality concept backfills 1736 Connecticut Ave NW.

PEDESTRIAN PLAZA & PUBLIC REALM

Connecticut Ave Deckover & Streetscape

DISTRICT DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION (DDOT) · UNDER CONSTRUCTION

A roughly $38M DDOT project building a curbless pedestrian plaza atop the Connecticut Avenue underpass between Dupont Circle and Q Street NW. Scope adds new pavers, sidewalks, streetlights, signals, ADA ramps, improved drainage and protected bike lanes tying into Columbia Road, R Street, and future 20th Street lanes. The deck is designed as an activated event space for farmers markets, outdoor movies, and cultural programming. Began April 2025; currently ahead of schedule, targeted for completion summer 2027.

WHY IT MATTERS

Converts the northern Dupont stretch of Connecticut Avenue into a walkable, activated public realm — a permanent amenity lifting frontage value and foot traffic for corridor retail, including 1736 Connecticut Ave NW.

Dupont Circle

Dupont Circle is one of the most recognizable and heavily trafficked neighborhoods in Washington, D.C. It is home to 70+ embassies, historic rowhouses, numerous hotels and a wide array of restaurants, entertainment venues, and retail destinations for tourists and locals alike. Visitors and professionals can stay in the more than 20 hotels in Dupont Circle, dine at DC favorites, and visit world class art exhibitions such as the Phillips Collection, Dupont Underground, and Studio Gallery. Many neighborhoods tend to have a singular feel, but Dupont Circle is a diverse location with strong commercial and residential vibrancy.

Located on the northern edge of Dupont Circle and just south of neighborhoods like Adams Morgan, Kalorama, and Woodley Park, 1736 Connecticut Avenue is positioned in the Dupont Circle Historic District. The subject property benefits from being only 900 feet from the Dupont Circle Metro Station which is consistently one of the top 10 metro stations in the metro system by ridership, as are the neighboring Farragut North and Farragut West stations which total over 60,000* riders per day. These riders are traveling to one of the densest office markets in Washington D.C. with nearly 47 million square feet of office product in the immediate area surrounding the subject property.

Given the submarket's history and character, it is not surprising that the area boasts equally impressive demographics. 23,332 residents live within a half mile of the property, in 15,500 households earning $202,419 average household income, which is scheduled to increase at a 3.33% rate annually. The population base is also particularly well educated with 80% holding a bachelor's degree and 49% having a master's degree. A dense commercial market, the population in the same radius jumps to 39,516 during the daytime.

Washington, DC MSA

With a population of over six million, the Washington, D.C. MSA includes the District of Columbia, the seat of the United States Government, as well as 22 counties and jurisdictions within Maryland and Virginia. The region has remained one of the best performing economies in the US, with a median household income over $125,000. This is largely helped by being one of the most dynamic economies in the US, driven by a highly educated workforce, with more than 50% possessing a bachelor's degree or higher. Within city lines are major educational institutions, such as Georgetown University, George Washington University, and Catholic University. The D.C. area is also a bustling business metropolis, playing host to numerous Fortune 500 companies spanning a wide array of industries, including Amazon, Lockheed Martin, General Dynamics, and Capital One. The Greater Washington region is also one of two metropolitan regions in the U.S. with three world-class airports: Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD), Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport (BWI), and Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA).

Washington D.C.'s retail market remains historically strong, supported by high household incomes and steady population growth. As of 2026Q1, the region's availability rate is 4.7%, among the lowest since 2008. The Greater Washington region has gained more than 500,000 jobs since 2000, underscoring sustained long-term employment expansion among the nation's leading metropolitan economies. This large increase in employment is supported by the highly educated workforce employed in several prevalent industries, including government, biotechnology, science & engineering, defense contracting, and tourism.

The City of Washington D.C. has largely been characterized by its presence and influence on the national and international political sphere. Backed by one of the most resilient and stable economies globally, Washington D.C. has seen steady population growth of over 120,000 since 2010, totaling over 680,000 residents. Of this population, there has been a notable increase of young professionals calling the city home, as the number of residents ages 25-44 has increased from 55.4% to 61.5 % over the last 10 years.
