AREA OVERVIEW

CITY OVERVIEW

Nashville, TN

Saint Thomas Health

NASHVILLE, TN

Nashville is the capital city of the U.S. state of Tennessee and the seat of Davidson County. It is also the county seat of Davidson County. Located on the Cumberland River, the city is the center of the Nashville metropolitan area, which is one of the fastest-growing in the nation. Nashville lies on the Cumberland River in the northwestern portion of the Nashville Basin. Nashville has had a consolidated city-county government, which includes six smaller municipalities in a two-tier system. According to the United States Census Bureau, the city has a total area of 527.9 square miles. Nashville is a city located in Davidson County, Tennessee. Nashville has a 2026 population of 704,963.

Strategically located in the heart of the Tennessee Valley, the City of Nashville and Davidson County is where individuals, families, communities, and businesses thrive. The Nashville economic market encompasses a population of more than seven hundred thousand. The local economy is a well-balanced blend of financial, wholesale, retail, manufacturing, and service industries. Computer technology, automotive, healthcare, private prison management, insurance, banking, publishing, telecommunications, and entertainment companies, and private educational institutions all find a home in Nashville. The local mix of these industries roughly reflects the national economy, with no single industry being predominant in the region. Nashville is one of the country's most attractive growth centers. Many corporate headquarters call Nashville home, including Nissan North America, HCA Healthcare, Bridgestone Americas, Amazon, Asurion, Community Health Systems, Saint Thomas Health, AllianceBernstein, ICEE, and iHeartMedia. With a rich economic, social, and cultural environment, the city consistently scores high in national rankings of preferred business locations, best places to live, and favorable environments for the creation and development of businesses. Principal employers include Vanderbilt University, the State of Tennessee, Metro Nashville-Davidson Co. Government, public schools, U.S. Government, Nissan North America, and Saint Thomas Health.

Nashville hosts a multitude of leading festivals, public events, and museums. Music City, USA, is home to the stage of the Grand Ole Opry, which operates the longest-running live radio show in the world, as well as the one-of-a-kind Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum. It is also the site of the Tennessee State Fair, an annual 9-day celebration that features rodeos, tractor pulls, and a variety of local musicians, craft brewers, and restaurateurs. Nashville is home to the melodious attractions like the Musicians Hall of Fame and Museum and the Parthenon, which is a replica of the famous Greek structure that represents Nashville's role as the Athens of the South. It is home to the Nashville Symphony, Tennessee Repertory Theatre, Nashville Opera Association, Nashville Ballet, and Circle Players. The Nashville Superspeedway offers over 150 events annually.
