Comments

Applicant has proposed remodeling of a warehouse/office building. Floor plans measure out to approximately 446sqft greater than what was in records. Honored since previous records did not have measureable floor plans. Current proposal is for office square footage and warehouse space. Occupancy is proposed as F-1 due to some manufacturing taking place. Manufacturing has been estimated due to this occupancy classification. Additionally, distribution has been proposed as a function of the building which supports the manufacturing classification.
