Location

Positioned on the east side of Clerk Street, just a mile south of Princes Street, this prime spot sits at the heart of Edinburgh's vibrant city centre. The area enjoys exceptional visibility with heavy passing traffic and consistently high footfall, making it a sought-after destination for businesses. Its proximity to the University of Edinburgh ensures a strong student presence, while the surrounding mix of cafés, takeaways, and convenience stores adds to the lively atmosphere.

Excellent public transport links serve the location, with multiple bus routes across the city, and nearby streets offer convenient pay-and-display parking.

Description

The Currently run as a successful Bubble Tea Franchise, the subjects comprise the ground and basement floors of a four-storey tenement style building constructed of sandstone with a pitched and slated roof. There are residential flats on the upper levels of the property. Internally, the property has a smart fully fitted sales area with a service counter directly to the left upon entry and benefits for high ceilings throughout the ground floor. Behind the front area the mis-section houses a small office area and a large ice-making machine, there are WC facilities and extra storage towards the rear.

The basement is deceptively spacious and comprises two partitioned dry storage rooms which would be suitable for storage or additional staff areas, the basement is accessed from a stair located in the mid-section.
