Location.

Canterbury House occupies a prime location on Newhall Street, one of Birmingham's most sought-after business addresses.

The building is located just a few hundred yards from the illustrious Colmore Business District, providing a superb leisure and retail mix including two Michelin-starred restaurants within a five-minute walk. Retail therapy is also well covered, with Grand Central, Bullring and The Mailbox all just a short stroll away.

Connectivity is another of Canterbury House's key attributes. The nearby A38M provides convenient access to the national motorway network, and both Snow Hill and New Street mainline railway stations are in close proximity. For those travelling more locally, both the Metro and local buses have extensive routes operating close-at-hand.
