DESCRIPTION

The site fronts Temple Street towards its southern end. Part of the site has direct frontage to the street and part is accessed from the rear courtyard. There is a pleasant parkland area beyond the courtyards, leading to the river beyond.

The site has previously been used for a number of purposes, and has been partially stripped back from its last use. The units will be refurbished to include fabric improvements. For retail and office use, floor to ceiling heights are satisfactory.

There is no parking with the site, but public car parks are in easy reach on foot.
