Description

6 Perseverance works offers a rare opportunity to secure a 1,845 sq ft self contained authentic warehouse office/studio arranged over ground and 1st floors.

The ground floor provides an attractive reception, with open plan work space to the rear and a fully glazed meeting room. The engineered wooden floors, white painted exposed brickwork and exposed steels deliver a warehouse office ideal for the more creative businesses.

The 1st floor provides an open plan workspace with exposed roof trusses creating volume space enhanced by the large sash windows overlooking the courtyard delivering great natural light.

A further mezzanine area provides further room for an addition meeting room, directors rooms or studio space.

Location

Nestled between Kingsland Road and Hackney Road, moments from the heart of Shoreditch where there are many shops, restaurants and bars including The Bike Shed Cafe, Pizza Pilgrims, Barrio East and Sticks & Sushi. Shoreditch High Street Station is a short walk away and Old Street Station is under a ten-minute walk, giving easy access to the Northern Line and National Rail services.

Perseverance Works is a small privately owned business park populated by creative businesses including architects, environmental design consultants, production companies, event studios and TV post production companies. It boasts its own privately owned, 24-hour security company and government-funded full fibre connectivity. All situated around a locally listed courtyard, the location offers a unique and friendly work community.
