

100 Corporate Parkway is also home to Uniland Development Company's headquarters

100 Corporate Parkway is a five-story, 140,000-square-foot Class A office building on the east side of University Corporate Centre, adjacent to Interstate 290. On the west side, this building abuts the outdoor courtyard for a quiet lunch or after-work gatherings. The site offers 425 car parks, lush landscaping, and various private and communal seating areas indoors and out. Natural sunlight floods the two-story main entrance and the atrium's award-winning landscaping provides a tropical feel year-round. 100 Corporate Parkway has access to underground parking, secured storage space, a fully equipped fitness center, and an on-site deli and dining area.

A neighbor to the State University of New York at Buffalo's North Campus, the commuter-friendly office park offers close access to numerous restaurants, banks, and other retailers surrounding the park, adding further value to this unique corporate community.
