ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

West Virginia’s Eastern Panhandle (EPH) has been the state’s strongest economic region for well over a decade, experiencing sustained growth in population, employment, income and a host of other major economic indicators. The tri-county area, Berkeley, Jefferson and Morgan County, has surpassed pre-pandemic levels for total employment and has seen its adult workforce increase to more than 100,000 employees. The Eastern Panhandle’s manufacturing sector is expected to record additional job growth over the next five years, expanding at a rate of nearly 0.7 percent per year. The Eastern Panhandle’s proximity to and economic ties with the DC Beltway economy is expected to drive opportunities for a range of high-tech and front-office jobs in defense and non-defense federal contracting as well as the private sector.
