Rich with period charm and thoughtfully maintained over the years, the property blends historic character with everyday functionality.

Before you even step inside, the expansive front porch sets the tone—an inviting, flexible space overlooking Lake Morton that can serve as an additional work area or a serene setting for client meetings, small events, or casual gatherings.

The first floor opens to a welcoming reception area with access to multiple offices and workspaces. A spacious front room with one of the building's five fireplaces creates a warm, impressive setting for greeting clients. Adjacent to this is a large room ideal for a conference space or collaborative work area. Two additional traditional offices provide privacy and versatility.
